

2020 WiBF Anniversary & Awards Luncheon

with keynote speaker Ann Sherry AO

Join us as we celebrate 20 years of WiBF for an exclusive member event with one of Australia's leading business executives, Ann Sherry AO. The finalists of WiBF's inaugural National Scholarship and Awards Program will also be announced on this special occasion. To nominate yourself or someone you know to be part of the WiBF's National Scholarship and Awards Program, please visit www.wibf.org.au.

ANN SHERRY AO
Non-Executive Director, NAB

Ann Sherry is one of Australia's leading business executives with a career that spans Government, Banking and Cruise Tourism. Ann is a non-executive director of NAB, the Chair of UNICEF Australia and currently holds non-executive roles with Sydney Airport, Palladium Group, Infrastructure Victoria, Cape York Partnerships, and the Museum of Contemporary Art Australia.

She is an Advisor, the former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Carnival Australia, the largest cruise ship operator in Australasia and a division of Carnival Corporation & Plc. After joining as Chief Executive Officer in 2007, she has transformed the industry and growth has been in double digits each year since.

Beginning working life as a radiographer, Ann became First Assistant Secretary of the Office of the Status of Women in Canberra before moving to the banking sector initially in HR roles, then in CEO roles with Westpac NZ and the Bank of Melbourne.

The Australian Government awarded Ann the Centenary Medal in 2001 and in 2004 she was awarded an Order of Australia. In 2015, Ann was named as the overall winner of the Australian Financial Review 100 Women of Influence Award. Ann devotes considerable energy to her passion for women's rights (currently as convenor of the MCC STEM group), supporting opportunity for Indigenous communities, personal philanthropy and support of the arts.
